Mailing Assistance

Connolly Printing can review proper preparation, makeup and handling of political campaign mailings. We can explain the use and associated costs of ancillary service endorsements and advise of any restrictions regarding what must be mailed as First-Class Mail and what might not qualify for Standard Mail and/or Nonprofit Standard Mail prices.

Connolly Printing specializes in direct mail. We can take care of the entire mail preparation process, from designing and printing your mailpiece, to delivering your mailing to the Post Office.

Don't get stuck, let us assist you.
